Risks Related to the Company An investment in our securities involves certain risks. An investor should carefully consider the following risk factors in conjunction with the other information in this report before trading our securities. Our governing documents contain anti- takeover provisions that may make it more difficult for a third party to acquire control of us. Our Articles of Incorporation contain provisions designed to discourage attempts to acquire control of the Company by a merger, tender offer, proxy contest or removal of incumbent management without the approval of our Board of Directors. As a result, a transaction which otherwise might appear to be in your best interests as a stockholder could be delayed, deferred or prevented altogether, and you may be deprived of an opportunity to receive a premium for your shares over prevailing market rates. The provisions contained in our Articles of Incorporation include: ● the requirement of an 80 % vote to make, adopt, alter, amend, change or repeal our Bylaws or certain key provisions of the Articles of Incorporation that embody, among other things, the anti- takeover provisions; ● the so- called business combination “ control act ” requirements involving the Company and a person that beneficially owns 10 % or more of the outstanding common stock except under certain circumstances; and ● the requirement of holders of at least 80 % of the outstanding Common Stock to join together to request a special meeting of stockholders.
